Lost.

A black Persian Lamb rug was lost. The finder will kindly leave the same at the residence of Mrs. Jas. Scott.

Unique Entertainment.

The Grandmother's ten and concert came off on Tuesday evening. A large number sat down to an old fashioned supper of baked beans, scones, pumpkin pie, &c., &c., in abundance, and for a couple of hours kept the Grandmothers busy waiting at table. Such pork and beans well deserve special mention and will live long in the memory of one at least. Following this came the concert with the Rev. S. W. Thompson in the chair, who on this as on other occasions well upheld his reputation as a chairman by furnishing the entertainment by frequent witty remarks as occasion called for. The program was undoubtedly a success. The recitations of Grandmothers Booth and McLeish, and the song of the "Three Old Maids" deservedly brought down the house. The Quilting Bee gave great amusement. The Grandmothers and Old Maids were enjoying themselves at the expense of the minister's wife, but great was the consolation when the Rev. Mr. Morton appeared on the scene and quickly cleared the air of all ill-gossiping. Much credit is due to the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, under whose auspices the affair was given, and to all those who assisted them for providing the evening's entertainment, which was both unique and successful in every way.

Supreme Court.

The regular sitting of the Supreme Court was held at Qu'Appelle Station on Tuesday, April 11th, when the following cases were disposed of:

Kerr vs. Morrison. Settled out of court.

Woodgate vs. Brody, an action for wages. The defence was that plaintiff hired with defendant for the full period of 8 months, and was to receive no wages until he had fulfilled his agreement. The evidence showed that defendant had admitted a liability for 7 months' wages, and judgment was accordingly given for plaintiff with costs. T. C. Johnstone for plaintiff.

Coxworth vs. Parker. Action to recover price of certain hogs sold to defendant. Settled out of court. A. D. Dickson for plaintiff.

Rittinger vs. Murphy. Action to recover price of plowing done by plaintiff for defendant. Counter claim by deft. for rent was admitted and judgment reserved on the question of value of plowing. T. C. Johnstone for plaintiff; A. D. Dickson for defendant.

Welsh vs. Welsh. Action to recover the monthly payment agreed on in a deed of separation. Evidence taken and judgment reserved. T. C. Johnstone for plaintiff; defendant in person.

Crain vs. Gray. Settled out of court.

Miss Bell is visiting in town at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lidgate. Mr. H. Jagger, of Moose Jaw, was in town on business on Tuesday.

Mr. Moses Whitehead, wife and six children, of Shallow Lake, near Owen Sound, arrived in town on Monday. Mr. Whitehead's two oldest boys have been in the country for several years. Last fall Mr. Whitehead visited different parts of our Northwest and was so "taken" with Weyburn that he took up land there. For the present, however, he has rented a farm in the direction of Edgley. He was accompanied by Mr. Alex. Hodge from the same place. Mr. Hodge intends looking around, and, if favorably impressed, will take up land and settle. We welcome them to our midst.

Edgley Echoes.

From our own correspondent.

A largely attended meeting of ratepayers was held in the hall on Friday last for the purpose of discussing Municipal matters in general and the action lately taken by the council with regard to Statute labor &c in particular. The chairman Mr. J. H. Fraser read to the meeting a number of arguments in favor of the proposed change in the Statute labor by-law furnished to him by councillor Doolittle. Query: Why didn't councillor Doolittle try them himself? After the matter had been fully discussed from all points, the meeting appointed Messrs J. H. Fraser, James Fair and W. C. Cameron as a committee to represent them at the next meeting of council to urge the council to reduce the proposed Statute labor tax from $1.25 to 75cts per day, and that unless the council had already actually purchased a grader that the order for the same be cancelled as in the opinion of the ratepayers there present it was a very unnecessary expenditure, and that in the event of said grader having been purchased that it be not used on the level stretches of prairie or the roads in this district. Unqualified disapproval was also expressed at the tax of $5.00 per head imposed on horses brought in for sale by others than those residing in the municipality. The meeting then adjourned.

"An Awful Feeling."

One of our would-be cyclists, while riding on the sidewalk near the school house, ran off into the deep cooly to the south of the school, and, of course, was upset into it. We believe he thought it was an "awful," or "horrible" feeling.

W. J. M. Donald, who has been staying at the hotel during the winter, left on Monday to take charge of the school district, some sixteen miles south of here.

We copy the following from the South's Falls News: "A pleasant event occurred on Wednesday March 15th, at the residence of Mr. Sam and Chubb, Wilton Street, when a daughter, Alice Maud, was added to marriage to Mr. John Crowe, of Edgley, S. W. T. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. G. Blundell in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The groom was assisted by Mr. Robt. Chubb, brother of the bride, and Miss Amanda Pearson performed the duties of bridesmaid. She is a charming and popular young lady, and was a valued member of the Methodist church choir. The groom is a prosperous farmer in the North-west, and the future of the happy couple is surrounded by the brightest prospects. Mr. and Mrs. Crowe will leave for their western home at the first of April, being accompanied by Mr. Chubb and family. The News extends congratulations." We join the news, wishing the couple a long and happy life.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

1. No policy or sum of insurance is included in the Company's report for 1898, as new issues or otherwise, except where the first renewal premium therefor, as provided by the contract, has been paid to the Company in cash.
2. The rate of interest on the total amount of admitted invested assets was 4 1/4 per cent., which is higher than that of 1897.
3. The ratio of expenses to premium income decreased during the year.
4. During the year the Company placed over $17,000,000 more new insurance than it did in 1897.

The New York Life Insurance Company is composed of over 250,000 policy holders who ARE the Company, who OWN the Company and who ALONE receive the PROFITS of the Company.

Intending associates will do well to examine the new Matthews Accumulation Policy of the New York Life, with Maximum Dividend, before placing their insurance elsewhere. For further particulars see our District Manager, Mr. Jas. H. Boyce. This is the strongest Life Insurance Company in the world.

The cash dividends declared for 1899 amount to $2,913,615. This is a larger sum than that of 1898. The Company's 8th Annual report, every dollar of this large sum will be drawn by the policy-holders therefrom during the year 1899. In 1898 this sum was distributed to the policy-holders in a larger sum than did any other American Life Insurance Company in that year.
